This is an exciting opportunity to gain postgraduate certificate in evidence-based interventions as a Children and Young People’s Wellbeing Practitioner (CYWP). validated by the University of Manchester. Come and join our dynamic team at Young Person’s Advisory Service

CYWPs play a key role in providing early mental health and wellbeing support for children and young people in community settings. These posts are part of national CAMHS transformation programme funded by NHS England (NHSE) Workforce Training & Education.

During training, you will work under supervision to gain experience to enable you to meet the competence required to deliver high-quality, evidence-based, CBT-Informed early interventions for children and young people experiencing mild to moderate mental health problems within community settings.

Applicants should have experience of working in children and young people’s mental health and emotional wellbeing and have an aptitude to undertake a postgraduate/graduate study programme.

For applicants who do not have a degree or academic equivalence. You would need to submit an essay to evidence you are able to produce academic work required for a Level 7 qualification.

CYWP trainees provide low intensity interventions for anxiety, depression and conduct problems including guided self-help. The training is provided by Greater Manchester Mental Health Foundation Trust in partnership with the University of Manchester and trainees will attend for study approximately two days a week, the remaining 3 will be based YPAS Community Hubs and peripatetic across Liverpool GPs
